

Shaw 4/13/67

New Orleans Probe Figure Reindicted

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The Orleans Parish Grand Jury has reindicted Dean A. Andrews Jr. on perjury charges.

By contrast to the original indictment, which accused Andrews of lying under oath in connection with Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's Kennedy Assassination probe, the new indictment cited 2,000 words of his March 16 testimony before the grand jury.

Five counts of perjury were cited against Andrews, a suspended assistant district attorney in adjoining Jefferson Parish who figured briefly in the Warren Commission report.

Reindictment by the Orleans Parish Grand Jury came after Andrews' lawyer, Sam Monk Zelden, moved that the first one be quashed because it was not specific in saying where Andrews allegedly lied.

Most of the testimony dealt with Andrews' contacts with a Clay Bertrand in 1963. Andrews told the Warren Commission that Bertrand telephoned him after President John F. Kennedy was assassinated in Nov. 22, 1963, and asked him to go to Dallas to represent Lee Harvey Oswald.

Garrison contends Clay Bertrand was an alias used by Clay L. Shaw, 54, retired New Orleans executive charged with conspiring to murder the President.